It All Fits Together . . .

Unity at Oakwood mixes class participation, the hours of work spent on a play, the thrill of going to a prom, and the grit and challenge of a football game into one common purpose — becoming the men and women needed to lead the world of tomorrow.

We the 976 students of Oakwood High School would not be able to work effectively towards this goal without the help of concerned teachers, devoted parents, and interested businessmen. The passing of the bond issue for a new science and language wing proves that the community of Oakwood places a great importance on the education of its future leaders.

Most important are the things that cannot be seen, but are felt by us at Oakwood — the determination, pride, and morale that are part of our feeling of unity. Classes (p. 16), activities (p. 64), sports (p.94), and the merchants' interest (p. 128) combine to create the oneness of spirit that spells "Oakwood" to its students.

IT ALL FITS TOGETHER

MEDITATING about the homework ahead, senior Jim Shively stops to lean against the familiar walls of Oakwood.

Our school is the place in which we learn by studying, by organizing our activities, or by being a member of a team.

The faculty and parents do all they can to help us obtain knowledge. In mathematics classes both teachers and students join in solving problems that are troublesome to all. The door is always open for us to come in and discuss a difficult phase of a subject, or our personal problems. Our deans help us to find the right college and get in. Parents are always interested in our progress—particularly when report cards are issued!

Planning and conducting the meetings of Red Cross or National Honor Society is important, but little would be accomplished without the help of our advisers. Some of our organizations such as Junior Achievement and JCOWA were organized by adults especially for teenagers.

Because we are proud of our togetherness, Oakwood students work diligently to promote good-will and bring recognition for their school. Music groups participate in city-wide programs. Speech students give hours of time to hear a first place given to them and Oakwood. Those who are scholastically inclined compete in tests on the state and national level. Atheletes strive unceasingly for victory while the community backs them up with patronage and cheering. Journalists do their best to record these events through the ACORN and OAK LEAF.

Interest, time, pride, and devotion all combine to give unity to our SCHOOL.

The Community . . .

IT ALL FITS TOGETHER

BUILT BY THE OAKWOOD COMMUNITY, our "Y" is the center for tennis, dances, Saturday movies, and meetings.

Our community is the place in which we learn by serving, by worshipping, or by participating in the foreign exchange program.

Financed by the people of Oakwood, the "Y" is the center for community activities. There we expand our interests through varied projects in the Hi Y's and Tri Hi Y's. The Saturday afternoon movies are the meeting place for the junior high set, while the high-schoolers flock to the "Y" open houses and parties. Parents help co-ordinate these activities by advising groups and chaperoning the social functions.

Giving a Prince of Peace speech is certainly a challenge for anyone of us. Every year the churches of Dayton sponsor this program to help cement a strong foundation of faith. The church youth groups help develop youth into strong members of society. Parents, teachers, and students worship together on Sunday.

The Boosters, the Speech Parents, Band Parents, and PTA organize our activities by financial help and diversified programs. Merchants make the publication of the ACORN and OAK LEAF possible. Newspapers show journalists their building, and area firms open their corporations to seniors on Senior Day.

The newly formed student exchange program brings a foreign teenager to our school through the help of parents and Oakwood students. Families open their homes to these wonderful boys and girls.

Interest, time, pride, and devotion all combine to give unity to our COMMUNITY.

FACULTY

An understanding instructional staff and comprehensive curriculum give us the foundation for our academic work.

This year the Oakwood schools have a new superintendent, Dr. George Pfleger. Before coming to Oakwood, Dr. Pfleger was assistant superintendent of schools and principal of Central Union High School in El Centro, California. The student body first met Dr. Pfleger at Camp Kern. He took part in a football game and was so good at catching passes that it was easy to see how he caught the one from the school board!

Working with Doctor Pfleger is a competent teaching staff and administrative board. This year six new teachers were added — Miss Jo Anne Carlson, French; Mrs. Suzanne Day, French; Mrs. Mary Goeckler, Algebra and Plane Geometry; Mrs. Gloria Hollister, English; Miss Myra Jerkic, French; and Miss Rebecca Strominger, Girls' Physical Education.

Besides having new teachers, Oakwood has introduced a new subject — college preparatory mathematics. Mr. John Waka is instructing a number of juniors and seniors in this new area.

There are changes in the language department. For the first time, five periods of French a week are offered to seventh and eighth graders as well as to older students.

These additions to the faculty and curriculum prove that Oakwood is doing its best to provide an excellent education for its students.

Seniors end journey

The opening of school launched the members of the Class of 1960 into a year of activities that climaxed their careers at Oakwood High School. Faced with thoughts of college and a complex life ahead, the seniors wasted no time in preparing themselves for these challenges.

With daily routine well established, the class participated in the annual Camp Kern Conference and visited industry on Senior Day early in the year. Highlighting the autumn activities were the traditional homecoming festivities with Ann Ryder reigning as queen. The football team, led by twenty-one senior 'Jacks, boasted an almost perfect season.

Notwithstanding a heavy load of academic work, the class enthusiastically undertook plans for their final prom "Holiday Fantasy." Huge mechanical toys along with a series of murals giving the gym a rounded effect completed the decorations for this gay holiday event.

Return from Christmas vacation took the seniors into a rigorous schedule of testing consisting of College Boards, Senior Scholarship Tests, and mid-year exams. The results brought the class a notable scholastic achievement when David Niebuhr, Bert Corwin, and David Bryant placed among the ten top seniors in the county in Senior Scholarship Tests and thirty-nine seniors received honorable mention. The class also excelled scholastically in the National Merit Scholarship Tests with six students — David Bryant, Ted Moore, David Niebuhr, Karin Olson, George Selden, and Bert Smith — participating as national finalists.

The next big task for the weary seniors was research themes. This called for innumerable trips to the library and hours of tedious note-taking.

On the lighter side of the winter's activities, school-spirited seniors cheered the basketball team to a glorious victory over arch rival Fairmont in tournament play. The close of a successful season of regular play was celebrated with the annual "Basket Ball" where Molly Wall and Phil Munger were crowned queen and king.

In their last group efforts the seniors presented their class play, Jesse Stuart's The Thread That Runs So True, on May 13 and 14 and worked together to stage their class day program ending with the traditional planting of the ivy.

At last, as the long-awaited events drew near, the seniors practiced many hours to perfect their marching to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." Baccaulaureate at Westminster Church on May 29 followed by graduation on June 4 marked a milestone in the twelve year journey of the Class of 1960.

Prom is Highlight of Juniors' Year

The enthusiasm and talents which the Class of '61 previously displayed are still easily visible.

Sports were a main activity, with sixteen junior boys on the varsity football team. Several played varsity and reserve basketball. The girls were not to be overlooked in this field, though. Hockey, basketball, and volleyball captured the attention of many juniors. They also took part in modern dancing by compiling a number of dances for an after-school program.

Working to make the football and basketball seasons a success were two junior cheerleaders-Kitty Beth Boren and Suzie Craig.

Music was another interest of the class with ten juniors as members of the band. Many were enrolled in the high school choir and glee clubs.

The highlight of the year was their prom "Showboat." Co-chairman for the dance were Kitty Beth Boren and John Fitzpatrick, who also reigned as king and queen. Marilyn Leonard, Kitty Evans, Betsy Lane, Mary Beth Parkin, Doug Almoney, Jerry McInnes, Dave Thomas, and Bob Lawson were on the court. It was a gala affair with the decorations depicting the old Mississippi-riverboat days.

However, the year consisted of more than just social activities. Some juniors began to understand research when they sought for material for the long themes they wrote in the spring. The library was the scene of many late hours and much hard work while the themes were being prepared.

Several other spring activities filled the calendar pages of these busy students. The traditional Beachcomber's Ball was held at the "Y" in May to honor the seniors. The Junior Class play was presented in March. It was a comedy entitled "The Egg and I".

A new interest was taken in journalism this year. There were six juniors who worked diligently to publish the school newspaper and five were members of the Acorn staff.

As the year draws to a close the juniors are looking forward to their last year at Oakwood. Under the capable direction of their class officers-Doug Almoney, president; Judy McInnes, vice-president; Mike Creager, secretary; and Merrily Freeman, treasurer-the class proved that they are able to assume the responsibilities of busy seniors next year.

New experiences greet the sophomores

The arrival of June brought another very successful year to a close for the Sophomore Class.

The boys entered into such sports activities as football and basketball. The girls' interests centered on volleyball, hockey, and for the first time-a modern dance program. On hand to cheer their teams on to victory were the sophomore cheerleaders-Vonnie Lingle, Chipper Ludwick, Jane Thiele, Paula Stone, Karen Alexander, and substitute-Georgia Hassink.

New experiences greeted the sophomores with their entrance into senior high. They joined the ranks of official high school students when they received their rings in February. Their first prom was an exciting event for all concerned. Co-chairmen for "Carousel" were Liz Johnson and John White. Everyone worked constantly in order to complete the decorations by April 2.

Freshmen show interest in many fields

As leaders of the junior high, the freshmen assumed new responsibilities.

In looking toward the future, the ninth grade students began a type of study which was new to them. They studied foreign languages, complicated alegbra problems, and sciences for the first time.

In addition to their high school studies, the freshmen attended their first formal dance. The Ninth Grade Junior Assembly held its first two dances at the Moraine Country Club and the Miami Hotel, respectively. The third was a dinner-dance at the Dayton Country Club.

Sports also played an important part in the lives of the junior high leaders. Many boys enjoyed participating in basketball. With their cheerleaders to encourage them the boys had a successful season.

Music attracted many students. Some were members of the chorus, senior high glee clubs, ensembles, and the band.

Under the direction of their class officers—Jack Waltz, president; Chris Holmes, vice-president; Pam Gregg, secretary; and Lana Thorpe, treasurer—the freshmen prepared to enter the senior high.

Eighth Grade

With one year of junior high school behind them, the eighth grade class proved its outstanding abilities in every field.

These students displayed enthusiasm and interest on the football field and in the choir. Many were also members of the junior band.

These students discovered that diligent work was necessary to build a successful year. When time for examinations approached, everyone applied himself to the difficult task of obtaining good marks on the tests.

Along with their officers—Charles Deuser, John Ryder, Melinda Morris, and Kathy Huxley—the class is looking forward to leading the junior high next year.

SEVENTH GRADE OFFICERS: Steve Wentworth, president; Kathy O'Hara, secretary; Betsy Mellinger, treasurer; and Doug Hall, vice-president.

Seventh Grade

Junior high school and its activities proved to be a new experience for this active seventh grade class. The boys enjoyed participating in sports such as basketball, while the girls learned to play hockey for the first time. Many members of the class took part in such musical activities as the seventh grade chorus and the junior band.

Another new experience was the election of class officers. The class chose Steve Wentworth, Doug Hall, Kathy O'Hara, and Betsy Mellinger to hold the important positions.

With one successful year behind them, the class is ready to take the second step toward their final goal in 1965.

With the guidance of Miss Page, adviser, and the leadership of its officers—Bert Corwin, president; Margy Todd, vice-president; Judy Euchenhofer, secretary; Howie Fogt, treasurer—the National Honor Society began the year 1960 with an impressive induction ceremony in early October. The former senior members spoke on the four NHS ideals—character, leadership, service, and scholarship—and Bob Spade, an Oakwood graduate, was guest speaker. A total of twenty-seven new members were welcomed into the society.

During the holidays the annual Christmas tea was held at the home of Adrienne Ash. Invitations were extended to NHS members of the graduating classes of 1958 and 1959 as well as the class of 1960.

The main project of the society was the NHS store. Profits paid for NHS pins, the spring picnic, and the medals for those who place in the Miami and Senior Scholarship Tests.

Girls' League provides needed kinship

GIRLS' LEAGUE COUNCIL—SECOND ROW: Woodward, G. Miller, S. Kling, Sievertsen, C. Bonner, Yates, Kruse, Maharg, Barth. FIRST ROW: Fanning, Day, Treat, Black, B. Parkin, P. Haas.

Due to "growing pains" exerted by an ever-growing student body, the Girls' League functioned primarily during the second semester but completed the year's impressive program of both old and new events successfully.

During the holiday season the league added a festive touch to the main hall in the senior high with a huge, colorfully decorated Christmas tree.

Springtime brought the annual mother-daughter tea and the traditional Big Sister party for welcoming the new sophomore girls to the senior high.

Highpoint of the year was the spring Turn-a-Bout dance—widely acclaimed as a great success.

The girls also made a generous donation to the A.F.S. fund for next year's exchange student.

A capable slate of officers—Ginny Miller, president; Betsy Barth, vice-president; Carolyn Woodward, secretary; and Miss Hadeler, adviser—successfully organized an eventful year.

Councils lead student body

Under the adviserships of Mr. Runkel, the student council has worked toward developing a strong student-run influence on school affairs. Led by their officers — Bob Judd, president; Jerry McInnes, vice-president; Franny McLennan, secretary; Charles Simpson, treasurer — members made much progress toward their goal.

The group ran the school fund drives, painted the trophy cases, and sponsored the homecoming ceremony and the dance which followed. They also organized the student-faculty basketball game, a fund-raising project for the American Field Service exchange student program.

A new change in the procedure for election of student council members is that they will be elected at the end of the old year.

JCOWA eyes world affairs

The Junior Council on World Affairs strove to increase understanding of nations through study, speakers, discussions, and movies during the year 1959-1960. Under the direction of their advisers — Mr. Kuhns, Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Andrews — officers — Howie Fogt, president; Kathy Clegg, vice-president; Linda Theobald, secretary; Bert Corwin, treasurer; Kitty Evans, JCRA representative — planned their program, Africa, around the many activities sponsored by the Dayton JCOWA.

This discussion of Africa was supplemented by the World Institute, the Model General Assembly, and the spring study tour in Washington, D.C. and New York City. Many students worked industriously in order to participate in these activities, and these students were honored at the annual International Smorgasbord.

First-hand observations were offered students this year by Oakwood's exchange students — Luis Echeverria, Howie Fogt, and Adrienne Ash.

N.F.L. OFFICERS – Jim Pinnell, president; Joy Ratliff, treasurer; Kris Olson, secretary – practice improving diction with tape recorder.

Under the leadership of its leaders – Jim Pinnell, president; Kris Olsen, secretary; Joy Ratliff, treasurer; Mr. Stevens, adviser – the National Forensic League successfully participated in speech meets and student congresses throughout the year.

Students gave up their Saturday morning sleep in return for work and a variety of experiences at the widely scattered speech tournaments. Meets, which were held at Oakwood, Fairmont, Delaware-Willis, Urbana, and Middletown, served to distinguish N.F.L. members, Jim and Ellen Pinnell, Barbara Antheil, Kris Olsen, and Bob Mitchell.

Highlighting the usual speech contests were the N.F.L. district contest in February and the Ohio High School Speech League contest in March.

Members worked hard to support group activities by selling N.F.L. calendars to the student body.

Final recognition was given to outstanding members in a presentation of awards and trophies at the annual banquet, a climax to an eventful year.

Journalism staffs record year's events

As early as last May, an enthusiastic Acorn staff began to plan with their advisers, Miss Crisman and Mr. Waka, for the coming yearbook. Meetings were held to discuss ideas for making the Acorn a complete, accurate, and interesting record of 1960. The yearbook went to press in March, and a relieved group awaited the end result of a year's hard work.

A new Oakleaf was introduced to the student body this year by an alert, able newspaper staff. In addition to featuring the off-set printing process, a monthly Scholastic ROTO was folded into the bimonthly paper, and the Oakleaf continued to roll off the presses into homerooms, bringing complete coverage of school and community activities.

Pen and Brush promotes art appreciation

The Pen and Brush Club was established in order to promote better appreciation of art, art service, and the organization of students interested in setting a higher standard of aesthetics in our school.

Membership is limited to those in grades nine through twelve who, through participation in art activities such as art contests and art service projects, earn the required number of points.

One of the projects of the Pen and Brush Club is to add to the collection of paintings started this year with the purchase of a water color by Edward Burroughs.

The club's adviser is Mr. Carmichael and officers are as follows: president, Bruce Cockerill; vice-president, Steve Chappell; secretary-treasurer, Tedi Kline.

PEN AND BRUSH OFFICERS—Steve Chappell, vice-president; Mr. Carmichael, adviser; Tedi Cline, secretary-treasurer; Bruce Cockerill, president—promote interest in art.

Quill and Scroll inspires journalists

Organized and performed by Judy Euchenhofer, Margy Todd, and Barbara Hassink, the induction of Quill and Scroll members was held on March sixteenth at the Yum-Yum. The fifteen initiated members were Barbara Ausbeck, Dathy Clarkson, Lynn Fleming, Sharon French, Peg Halsted, Steve King, Jerry McInnes, Dave Niebuhr, Demetri Preonas, Charlie Simpson, Miriam Swaney, Linda Theobald, Judy Wasmuth, and Carole Willsey. Guests at the banquet were Mr. Homer Hacker, promotion manager of the Dayton Daily News; Mr. James Runkel, principal; Miss Crisman, adviser; Miss Campbell, and Rickey Rieger.

Stiff requirements make the club an honorary one. Members must be in the upper third of their class and have exhibited superior journalistic ability.

At the first meeting the following officers were elected: Barb Hassink, president; Charlie Simpson, vice-president and program chairman; and Judy Wasmuth, secretary.

QUILL AND SCROLL OFFICERS—Charlie Simpson, vice-president; Barb Hassink, president; Judy Wasmuth, secretary —schedule future meetings.

Varsity "O" undertakes new projects

Throughout the year the Oakwood lettermen under the direction of Mr. Carr and their officers—Chuck Weaver, president; Bart Bartholomew, vice-president; Mike Creager, secretary; Jim Shively, treasurer—have undertaken a number of new projects.

In order to brighten the basketball gym and encourage school spirit, the club purchased a complete collection of colorful pennants—one for each member of the Southwestern Buckeye League.

Through varied projects the group gradually worked toward their final picnic. They sold homecoming ribbons, athletic sweatshirts, and Booster Bars and sponsored a very successful dance.

Varsity "O" members also decided to tackle the problem of the Oakwood Victory Bell, which has been somewhat less than successful, and to discontinue the well-known letter sweaters in favor of a new blue and gold athletic jacket.

Chess Club perfects challenging hobby

The Oakwood Chess Club completed its third year of existence with a membership of well over twenty students. Early in the year the club held a tournament to select a chess team for competition in the Greater Dayton High School Chess League. The top five players in the tournament—John Phythyon, George Purcell, Alan Worth, Mike Fain, and Joe Chamberlain—were named to the team. Alternates were Jim Crouse and Ted Slicer.

The group was very successful and has firmly established its intra-scholastic appeal. Officers for the year were John Phythyon, president; Mike Fain, vice-president; and Art Peters, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Cato was their adviser.

Determined cheerleaders unite in novel

With the start of the 1959-1960 basketball season, Oakwood's newly chosen reserve cheerleaders – Karen Alexander, Vonnie Lingle, Chipper Ludwick, Paula Stone, and Georgia Hassink – began a busy and eventful season. Striving to improve old cheers and present them with co-ordination and polish, the girls worked long hours together. In order to have novelty and variety in their repertoire, they also originated new cheers and then practiced diligently to perfect them. Characterized by determination and new ideas, the reserve cheerleaders led the stands in cheering the basketball team through many exciting games, both triumphant and disappointing, to a victorious season.

Receiving lively encouragement from their spirited cheerleaders – Leslie Bahl, Pam Gregg, Margot Herbruck, and Lois Kievet – the ninth grade football and basketball teams scored winning seasons. The girls were rewarded during the basketball season with invitations to cheer at several big school pep assemblies. These appearances were a "first" for any ninth grade cheering squad and a well-deserved honor.

Also appearing before the senior high for the first time were the seventh and eighth grade cheerleaders – Ann Douglass, Pinkie Morris, Sally Todd, Sally Creager, Ann Lambert and Ronnie Krumholtz.

Throughout the year the varsity cheerleaders — Joy Ratliff, captain; Ann Ryder, Virginia de Bruyn Kops, Linda Lozar, Kitty Beth Boren, and Susie Craig — have pursued their various duties with determination, new ideas, and a consistent plan of attack.

With the start of the new school year the entire student body plunged into the long-awaited football season. To heighten the enthusiasm and provide a change, the cheerleaders altered their old outfits by adding new blue and white pleated skirts. Later, vivid blue and gold pom-poms appeared on the scene to add new zest to the cheers — both old standbys and a growing number of new ones.

On the evening of the premiere, the newly-attired cheerleading squad began the season with high hopes and solid support from an enthusiastic student body. The team responded by winning game after game. But as the victories continued to come regularly, the enthusiasm began to wane, pep assemblies lost their vitality, and the cheerleaders faced the problem of a slump in school spirit. Then the interest in the possibility of winning the league mounted, and the problem diminished only to reappear with the advent of the basketball season.

So the cheerleaders began a plan for awakening Oakwood's school spirit. Peppy announcements and persuasive posters urged students to attend games. New cheers were introduced. The pep assemblies featured new ideas and programs to lure students into the gym on Friday afternoon. One new addition was an inter-class cheering contest in which each class, led by its own cheerleaders, attempted to out-cheer the others.

Before the big Northmont game the pep assembly was held at six o'clock — another "first." It featured a spirited pep band and the combined performances of seventh, eighth, ninth, reserve, and varsity cheerleaders. The display of school spirit which resounded in the gym throughout the game was not just evidence of a successful pep rally for a fine team, but a tribute to a determined group of cheerleaders who had obviously succeeded in their goal.

Basket Ball festivities

On the cool, clear evening of October ninth during the half-time of the exciting Oakwood-Eaton game, Oakwood celebrated its 1960 Homecoming. Five 1959 Pontiac convertibles driven by the top five boys in the senior class—Bert Corwin, Dave Niebuhr, Bob Pavey, Rickey Rieger, and George Selden—carried the court—Judy Euchenhofer, Joy Ratliff, Ann Ryder, Sue Spitler, and Terry Taylor—and their respective escorts—Bob Gaines, Steve King, Craig Johnson, Luis Echeverria, and Jim Pees—around the field before the cheering crowd.

When the court had reached the platform in the center of the field, Bob Judd from the football team presented Ann Ryder, Oakwood's 1960 Homecoming Queen, with her crown, a dozen roses, and a kiss. The court watched the remainder of the game from special seats along the sidelines.

At the dance following the game the two senior Hi-Y presidents officially presented the queen's pearl crown to her and silver charms to the court. The success of the ceremony and dance was accredited to the co-chairmen of the event—Dave Bryant, Liz Johnson, and Charlie Simpson.

HOMECOMING QUEEN—Ann Ryder.

On the evening of February twenty-sixth during the Oakwood-Fairborn basketball game, students celebrated the traditional Basket Ball festivities. At the "Y" the court—Bert Corwin, Bob Griesmeyer, Steve King, Phil Munger, Tom Stickel, Barb Parkin, Joy Ratliff, Terry Taylor, Margy Todd, and Molly Wall—awaited the crowning of the king and queen. Finally at 10:15, Ann Ryder and Craig Johnson, Homecoming royalty, crowned Phil Munger and Molly Wall, King and Queen of the 1960 Basket Ball. Both were presented with crowns and Molly also received a bouquet of roses.

After the ceremony the court was entertained with a variety of acts headed by Sue Spitler and Rooney Mereness. Senior, junior, and sophomore girls sang and danced to "I'm Tired of Being One of the Girls." Then the senior girls dedicated "Put 'Em Back," another song from Li'l Abner, to the senior boys. The Pep Boys wrote and presented a tribute to the senior cheerleaders, and the senior boys presented a satire on westerns.

Bands broaden reputation through hard

The Oakwood instrumental music department—Mr. Walker and his senior high, junior high, and pep bands—completed a very successful school year with an impressive record of honors won at various contests and an array of individual distinctions awarded to band members.

During Christmas vacation a woodwind ensemble appeared at Harmon school and a brass quintet, at the Oakwood EUB church. Later in the holidays the band presented their first concert of the year. An unusual number included special accompaniments by Jane Fulkerson and Barbara Gaunt on typewriters.

In March the band attended Fairview High School for the District Band Contest, in which a number one rating is necessary for participation in the state contest. Many individual band members also distinguished themselves in soloist and ensemble contests at various levels.

A vital addition to Oakwood's successful football season was the weekly appearance of the marching band. Leading the band across the field, and performing at half times, the majorettes provided enjoyable entertainment; and the pepband enlivened the pre-game pep assemblies.

Imaginative proms highlight holidays

Beautiful murals, with accent on simple lines and single colors, transformed the senior high gym on December nineteenth into a "Holiday Fantasy." Further highlighting the decorations were a gigantic moving teddy bear and a seven-foot jack-in-the-box, both of which had been designed and constructed by talented seniors. The successful prom was the result of the organization of co-chairmen—Dick Miller and Donna Hinton.

Eagerly awaiting the intermission ceremonies, the prom court—Elesa Bieser, Donna Hinton, Franny McLennan, Margy Todd, Jan Treat, Luis Echeverria, Jim Kennedy, Dick Miller, Jim Shively, and Tom Stickel—and the other dancers enjoyed the music of Jimmy May's Band and the punch and unusual toy cookies.

Finally at 10:30, a parade of wooden soldiers, toy dolls, and dancing bears entertained the newly-crowned king and queen—Tom and Donna.

Murals depicting nineteenth century Mississippi riverboat scenes created the mood for the junior class prom, "Showboat", on November twenty-fifth. The court—Kitty Evans, Betsy Lane, Marlyn Leonard, Mary Beth Parkin, Jerry McInnes, Doug Almoney, Bob Lawson, and Dave Thomas—watched as John Fitzpatrick and Kitty Beth Boren, the hardworking co-chairmen of the prom, were crowned King and Queen of Hearts. Afterwhich the court, seated on large dice, were entertained with songs and dances directed by Mrs. Gibbons and ranging from "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody" and "In the Evening by the Moonlight" to "Ida."

The sophomore prom, "Carousel", was presented on April second under the organization of co-chairmen Liz Johnson and Johnny White. Members of the court were Karen Alexander, Liz Johnson, Judy Lane, Jane Thiele, Bobby Brundige, Steve Chappell, Bill Higgins and Mike Schaeffer. Sheila Wall and Johnny White were elected king and queen.

The Oakwood High School music department under the direction of Mr. Uhl practiced throughout the year for a number of performances in various contests, assemblies, and the Christmas and spring concerts.

The Senior High Choir had a hardworking but rewarding year. Heading the group, the officers—Bob Judd, president; Sue Spitler, vice-president; Donna Hinton, secretary—planned a busy year. The group devoted its time to practicing for the Christmas concert and then to earning a one rating, a necessity for participation at the State level, in the district contest at Fairview. Members also sang in a special performance at Dayton Memorial Hall of the "Hallelujah Chorus." They sang with students from schools all over Dayton and the surrounding area and the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra.

The seventh, eighth, and ninth grade choirs were also very active in participating in various concerts and competitive contests.

Ensembles and glee clubs entertain large

Under the direction of Mr. Uhl, both the Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club appeared publicly in the Christmas and spring concerts to sing a variety of enjoyable songs. The organization of the groups was the duty of their responsible officers. Those for the Boys' Glee Club were Jim Hager, president; Joe Jensen, vice-president; Wally Judd, secretary; and Dave Harbottle and Bobby Cowden, librarians. Those for the Girls' Glee Club were Mary Moeller, president; Carol Kirgis, vice-president; Chris Holmes, secretary; and Mary Jane Moore and Vonnie Lingle, librarians. The group completed the year with the annual picnic.

"Y" offers wide variety of activities

YOUTH ADVISERS—Mrs. Weyrich and Mr. Gilbert Martin.

Early on the morning of September twenty-sixth, busloads of spirited sophomores, juniors, and seniors left the "Y" for a day at Camp Kern. The purpose of the excursion was to spend an enjoyable day discussing problems which directly involve the school or community. Co-chairmen, Judy Euchenhofer and Jim Kennedy; their advisers, Mrs. Wilbur Kennedy and Mrs. Arthur Heitz; and discussion leaders selected the following topics for discussion: "Oakwood School Spirit," "Current Social Problems," and "Our Y Program, 1959-60."

From September twenty-eighth to October second the "Y" held its annual youth membership drive under the direction of Mr. Martin, adviser; Sharon French, general chairman; Bruce Comisar, senior high chairman; and Joe Jensen, junior high chairman.

SENIOR YOUTH COUNCIL—SECOND ROW: Almoney, Bart Bartholomew, Comisar, B. Corwin. FIRST ROW: E. Prugh, Wasmuth, Ratliff, McLennan.

FIRST ROW: Chris Harlan, Sibyl Harris, Kitty Evans, Dathy Clarkson.

The primary function of the Oakwood Youth Council was to plan and organize the varied social functions sponsored by the "Y." Co-chairmen for all football and basketball open houses were appointed by the Council which also assigned chairmen for the following major activities: youth membership drive, Camp Kern Conference, Girls' Tournabout, New Year's Eve Dance, and the Beachcombers' Ball. The group headed by its officers—Bert Corwin, president; Franny McLennan, vice-president; Judy Wasmuth, secretary—also discussed problems concerning youth activities at the "Y."

The duty of the Presidents' Council was to O.K. all proposed Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y projects for the year. The council promoted the World Service Drive and sent delegates to the annual Youth in Government Convention. Officers were Donna Hinton, president; Kitty Evans, vice-president; and Johnny White, secretary.

TYPICAL "Y" OPENHOUSE provides enjoyment for all students in tenth through twelfth grades.

Class productions feature talented

STUDENTS LISTEN ATTENTIVELY to new schoolmaster, Jesse Stuart.

The Egg and I, a delightful comedy by Betty MacDonald, was presented by the Junior Class on March eighteenth and nineteenth. All proceeds of the Saturday night production were donated by the class to the AFS fund.

Mrs. Signe Wood, assisted by student director Kris Olson, directed the play.

This rollicking comedy of life on a chicken farm featured many talented juniors—Kathy Clegg, Bob Stross, Amy Gerber, Susie Craig, Wade Alley, Carole Willsey, Judy Wasmuth, and Bart Bartholomew.

The Thread That Runs So True, written by Jesse Stuart, was presented on May thirteenth and fourteenth by the Senior Class. Mrs. Wood also directed this play and was assisted by Gary Schubert, student director.

The warm, moving comedy was very successful due to the efforts of many serious, hardworking, and talented seniors—Larry Loschert, Ginni Miller, Dave Montgomery, Barbara Parkin, Virginia de Bruyn Kops, Bert Corwin, George Selden, Don Huxley, Bob Judd, Bob Pavey, Linda Kimball, Nancy Johannes, and Mike Holz.

CO-STARS—Naomi Deane (Ginni Miller) and Jesse Stuart (Larry Loschert) realize their love for each other in the final scene of the play.

DISAGREEMENTS ARISE between grandma (Barb Parkin) and Jesse (Larry Loschert) and the school bullies (George Selden and Don Huxley).

Freeman, Brower, Holcombe, Tapper, Melhouse, John Weitzel, Mrs. Russell, adviser.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Goeckler, and Miss Jerkic, advisers, and the officers—Judy Jones, president; Sue Scott, vice-president; Kathy Clegg, secretary; Wally Judd, treasurer; Kitty Nevin, vice-president in charge of the junior high; Sara Hartman, point secretary—the American Junior Red Cross completed a full calendar of events for the year. They worked on many worthwhile projects. In doing so, they not only met great needs but also promoted greater understanding with their thoughtfulness, interest, and concern for unfortunate people.

At Christmas the group sponsored the traditional filling of Red Cross gift boxes. At the beginning of both semesters they industriously sold protective book covers featuring the new school emblem. They also sold fifty-star flags to raise money for a chest, which is filled with health and educational items, to be sent to an overseas school and disaster area.

Once a month the council furnishes volunteers for work at the Veterans' Administration. In addition to this, several girls work as JRC hospital volunteers in the Dayton area.

Honor came to the Oakwood chapter of the Junior Red Cross when one of its members, Kathy Clegg, was elected as one of the four Montgomery County students to attend the National Red Cross Convention in Atlantic City this summer.

The Oakwood Junior Red Cross also sponsored an assembly to enlighten the student body in regard to the mentally handicapped. Mr. Rusher, the guest speaker and executive director of the Dayton Council for Retarded Children, was both interesting and stimulating.

Many students assist busy departments

During the year, many students willingly donated time to performing various duties in the junior and senior high offices, the cafeteria, the library, and the psychological testing department. By running errands, distributing messages, checking files, keeping records, answering telephones, and assisting in numerous other routine jobs, the students lent helping hands at noon, after school, and during free periods. This much needed assistance helped the various departments function more efficiently and at the same time allowed students to gain valuable experience while working with the faculty.

Oakwood	8	Trotwood 6
Oakwood	12	West Milton 13
Oakwood	46	Brookville 6
Oakwood	33	Carrollton 0

The 1959 Lumberjacks, possibly the best Oakwood team, gave fans much to cheer about as they narrowly missed their first league crown. Ably coached by Mr. Wysocki, assisted by Mr. Armbruster and Mr. Carr, Oakwood's gridders secured second place in the SWBL with a 7-1 record.

This well-balanced team was formed around a nucleus of returning seniors. Particular note should be given to the line with stalwarts such as Rooney Mereness, Don Vandenberg, Chuck Weaver, Dick Miller, Jim Shively, Jim Pinnell, and Steve Carr. Tom Stickel may have set a record as he gained a fantastic average of 9.2 yards per carry.

Oakwood showed strong promise in the pre-season scrimmages with victories over Beavercreek, Fairview, Kiser, and Colonel White. In its first test the 'Jacks shut out West Carrollton in the SWBL premiere 14-0.

Oakwood 20 Northridge 6

Halfback Tom Stickel, sparked Oakwood to its first league victory gaining 132 yards in three carries —one 95 yards for a touchdown. In the first period Phil Munger capped a sustained drive with a 6-yard touchdown. The 'Jacks second touchdown was scored when Bruce Comisar hit Steve Carr with a 10-yard jump pass. In the final period Northridge came back with Joe Safreed carrying the final 6 yards.

Oakwood 18 Vandalia 12

Vandalia was next to fall before Oakwood as Bruce Comisar plunged the final 2 yards in the closing moments of the game. Vandalia had tied the score with two second-half touchdowns before Comisar's clincher. In the first quarter Oakwood scored on a 7-yard run by Tom Stickel. Later in the third quarter Stickel scored again on a 48-yard aerial from Comisar.

Oakwood 36 Eaton 0

Scoring in every quarter, Oakwood methodically rolled over Eaton. Hard-hitting Phil Munger delighted the large homecoming crowd as he scored a fifty-three yard touchdown before two minutes had elapsed in the game. Other touchdowns were scored by Bob Herbruck, Tom Stickel, and Jack Cheney.

Oakwood 34 Northmont 12

The undefeated 'Jacks rolled over Northmont with 20 first-half points. Bart Bartholomew scored 2 touchdowns, one on a 20-yard pass from quarterback, Bruce Comisar, and another on an 8-yard run. In the opening period Oakwood scored twice as Tom Stickel plunged one yard and Phil Munger broke away for 33. Scoring 2 touchdowns in the third quarter, Ron Hawley sparked the Northmont team. Oakwood's scoring was concluded as Comisar hit Jim Pinnell on a 48-yard pass play.

Oakwood 8 Trotwood 6

In a close and exciting game Oakwood shaded Trotwood for its fifth straight victory. Trailing at the half, Oakwood wasted little time in springing slippery Tom Stickel on a 65-yard touchdown run in the opening minutes of the third quarter. Bob Herbruck took a pass from Bruce Comisar for the winning two points. In the second period Trotwood's Ron Brown scored from three yards out as an Oakwood fumble was recovered on the seven. Oakwood was outstanding in the second half as its stubborn defense twice thwarted Trotwood advances inside the ten yard line. Tom Stickel was picked as the Daily-News Valley player of the week.

Oakwood 12 West Milton 13

In a clash which was to determine the league champion, Oakwood was defeated by West Milton. The Jacks scored first, as fullback Phil Munger carried the final 3 yards in the initial period. A penalty nullified the PAT. Key penalties thwarted two other touchdown drives in the same half. In the third quarter, fullback Alan Netzley scored Milton's first touchdown. In the final period Phil Munger scored again. However, with 1:03 left in the game and Milton trailing 12-6, Netzley capped a long drive with a 3-yard TD. He then kicked the all-important extra point for the victory.

Oakwood 46 Brookville 6

Bouncing back, Oakwood clobbered Brookville as six Jacks scored. Elusive Tom Stickel tallied on an 80-yard kick-off return and a 63-yard run. Other touchdowns were scored by Bob Herbruck, Phil Munger, Jack Cheney, Jim Pinnell, and Rooney Mereness. Rooney recovered a blocked punt in Brookville's end zone for this tally. Jed Damuth booted four extra points for Oakwood. Brookville picked up its lone touchdown in the second quarter on a two yard plunge by Joe Cahill.

Oakwood 33 West Carrollton 0

A shut-out against West Carrollton closed Oakwood's successful season. Bruce Comisar set up three touchdowns and scored one in his final game for Oakwood. Touchdowns by Tom Stickel, Phil Munger, Bob Herbruck and Eric Kirk added to the rout. Jed Damuth kicked three extra points through the uprights.

The reserves, under the coaching of Mr. Armbruster, won four games and tied one. The victories were over Northridge, Vandalia Butler, Trotwood Madison, and Brookville. The West Milton game ended in a 6 to 6 tie.

At the annual football banquet held in the cafeteria, quarterback Bruce Comisar was voted the honorary captain for the 1959 season. Chuck Weaver was awarded the "outstanding lineman" trophy, and Tom Stickel was voted the "outstanding back." As the most improved senior on the squad, Don Vandenburg received the McGurk trophy.

Crosscountry men outrun opponents

Reviving the crosscountry team after a lapse of seventeen years, Oakwood outran its opponents for a 4-1 record. The team, coached by Mr. Carr, was built around eleven juniors and one senior. The lone senior, Craig Butcher, broke the school record for the two mile run with a time of 10:45. From the predominantly junior squad the 'Jacks defeated Vandalia-Butler 28 to 29, Tipp City 30 to 36, West Milton 22 to 38, and West Carrollton 21 to 44, and lost only to Fairmont 44 to 19. Butcher took first place against West Milton and West Carrollton while Bob Lawson placed second against Vandalia, Tipp City, and West Carrollton. In crosscountry competition the low score wins, as the winner receives one point and each other participant also receives the number of his place. Craig Butcher, Bob Lawson, Jerry McInnes, Gary Schenck, and Chuck Newman were mainly relied on for action. Carig Meadows filled in for Chuck, as the feather-footed runner encountered an early season injury. In the SWBL meet Oakwood came in second behind Vandalia 50 to 41. Tipp City was third with 93 points. Individually, Craig Butcher took second place while Bob Lawson captured fourth.

Warming up is Senior Craig Butcher.

Seven game win streak nets 14-6 record

Tying the school record for most games won, the Lumberjacks romped to victories in their final seven games. Coach Gardner's charges captured third place in the newly expanded SWBL with a 7-2 record.

Opening in fine fashion, the 'Jacks shot past Patterson 61-46 as Steve King scored 20 points.

After blowing an early lead, the 'Jacks were defeated by Lebanon in the last 16 seconds 47-45. Steve King and Phil Munger scored 13 and 10 points apiece.

Coming back strong the next night, the 'Jacks struggled past a good Belmont team 71-67 in overtime. Down 11 points at the half, Oakwood was led back by great rebounding from Jeff Heitz and Phil Munger and a record breaking performance from Steve King. Steve scored 34 points with 25 coming the final half.

In Oakwood's next outing the 'Jacks swamped Tipp City 62-34 as Phil Munger returned to last year's form with 22 points.

Jeff Heitz sparked a third quarter burst with 10 points to help rout Northridge 58-29. Jeff shared high point honors with Steve King at 14 points.

A fourth quarter burst by Fairview netted them a victory over the 'Jacks 60-51. Phil Munger, Steve King, and Jeff Heitz scored 16, 15, and 11 points respectively in a losing cause.

Although not playing up to usual form, Oakwood out distanced Northridge 45-37 for its first round win in the Christmas tournament held at Mad River. Phil Munger pitched in 15 points.

Looking for prospects are varsity coach Gardner and reserve coach Carr.

In the final round of the tourney Oakwood met the Mad River Indians. Although Mad River won 68-52, they later forfeited as an ineligible player was used. Steve King and Phil Munger paced the 'Jacks with 16 and 15 points apiece.

Taking off on a scoring rampage, Phil Munger fired 29 points through the hoop, as Oakwood outclassed Vandalia 76-52.

In a close and exciting game Eaton warded off repeated Oakwood rallies to squeeze by 49-48. Phil Munger and Steve King pitched in 16 and 15 points apiece.

In its second meeting with Mad River Oakwood succumbed 69-54 despite a gallant effort by speedy Tom Stickel. The hard-driving senior hit 8 for 10 field goals and 5 free throws for a 21 point effort.

Meeting first place Northmont, the 'Jacks were defeated in the final quarter 53-46. Phil Munger clicked for 16 points to get high point honors. Sophomore starter Bob Brundige, playing his best game, kept the 'Jacks close as he scored 13 points and played a fine floor game.

Pulling away late in the game, Oakwood romped past Trotwood 56-48 despite Dave Rinehart's 25 points. Phil Munger paced the victors with 23 points, 19 coming in the final half.

Tearing past West Milton in the third quarter with 24 points to Milton's 6, Oakwood overcame a 5 point half time deficit. Phil Munger turned in a great performance with 32 points. Jeff Heitz chipped in with 13 and turned in a fine rebounding job.

Leading 37-35 at the three quarter mark, Oakwood raced past Centerville 63-43. The fourth quarter splurge was led by Tom Stickel and substitutes Bob Griesmeyer, Don Huxley, and Bert Corwin. Tom laid in 17 points and was followed closely by Steve King with 16. Jeff Heitz turned in a great performance with 24 rebounds.

Oakwood finally got unwound and fast breaked West Carrollton for a 56-48 win after leading by one point at the outset of the final period. King and Munger netted 15 and 14 points apiece.

In the final regular season game Oakwood led all the way to defeat Fairborn 57-45. Steve King fired in 18 points with Phil Munger and Tom Stickel each scoring 12.

In the first class AA Dayton district tournament game at Beavercreek High School, the second-seeded Lumberjacks turned into knights in order to slay the Fairmont Dragons 53-47. Working the ball well against a Fairmont zone, Oakwood took all the fire out of the dying serpents. Phil Munger blackjacked the dragon-breeding school, as he clicked for 29 points to lead all scorers.

Despite 18-point efforts by Steve King and Phil Munger, Kiser, Oakwood's second round opponents, staved off a final Oakwood rally to win 50-44.

Under the able coaching of Mr. Carr the reserves registered 11 victories and 5 defeats. The highlight of the season came when they defeated the Mad River reserves 76-53 with Doug Almoney and Jack Waltz turning in great performances with 30 and 22 points respectively.

At the basketball banquet top scorer Phil Munger was named most valuable player. Munger was All League first team for the second straight year. Steve King was placed on the second team and Tom Stickel received Honorable Mention. Phil Munger, Steve King, Tom Stickel, Jeff Heitz, Bob Brundige, Bert Corwin, Don Huxley, and Bob Griesmeyer received their varsity letters.

The intramural program this year, co-ordinated by Mr. Wysocki, was again successful with many of the games going into overtime. Differing from previous years, this year actual referees officiated at many of the games.

The two top teams in each league, the American and National, played each other for the championship. Don Vandenberg's team defeated Mike Creager's in order to reach the finals, while Steve Johnson's team outscored Tod Tantum's for their berth into the final round.

Coming back late in the game Johnson's team, led by Roy Kievit, who scored 16 points, shaded the National Leaguers 30 to 27. The winning team received medals and also earned the right to meet the faculty in the student vs. faculty game held for the American Field Service. The faculty, however, squeezed by 38-36 with a large audience attending.

Although last year's tennis team failed to take the city championship, the outlook was quite promising for regaining it this year. Losing only one man, the team welcomed the addition of freshman, Jack Waltz. Jack captured first position in singles with Dave Thomas and John Sisson second and third. Returning letterman Bruce Comisar teamed up with Bill Higgins as first doubles while Dick Cammerer and Bob Brundige were paired as the second doubles team. Coach Hummon also relied on Wagner, Grout, and Schenck as strong substitutes. In their first match Oakwood defeated Belmont 4 to 1.

broad jump. Stickel vied with Jeff Heitz for high jump honors. The hurdles were dominated by Tom Casey, Tom Stickel, and Jack Cheney. Craig Butcher and Bob Lawson were outstanding contenders in the mile as were Bob Brundige and Jeff Heitz in the half mile. Bart Bartholomew, Steve Carr, Bucky Neal, Johnny White, and Bob Stutz took charge of the sprints. The tentative 880 relay team consisted of Stutz, Bartholomew, Neal, and Holz. The mile relay members were Jack Cheney, Bartholomew, Steve Carr, and Johnny White.

In a pre-season practice meet Oakwood was victorious over Wilbur Wright 68 to 55. In its first meet Oakwood defeated Vandalia and Eaton 91-50-9, as Tom Stickel grabbed four first places.

In the next meet the 'Jacks erupted for a 104½ to 13½ triumph over Centerville. In other meets Oakwood defeated two highly respected city teams, Belmont and Wilbur Wright. The highlight of the season came at the Trotwood Relays. In a tremen-

This year's track team, strong in every event, was considered a top contender for the league crown. Under the watchful eye of Coach Carr the cindermen hoped to equal last year's perfect 11-0 record. Many talented Sophomores planned to counteract the loss of several lettermen. Being one of the most respected outfits in the Miami Valley, Oakwood was privileged to be invited to the Dayton Invitational, the Trotwood Invitational, the Troy Invitational, and the Xenia Invitational track meets. The schedule for this year was one of the toughest with fourteen meets planned.

Dominating the shot put and discus was Mike Creager backed up by Dick Miller, Demetri Preonas, Bert Smith, and Denny Williams. Mike was heaving the shot 47 feet and may break eventually Jerry Wenzke's record set last year. Tom Stickel was top man in the pole vault as was Chuck Newman in the

By virtue of a great anchor leg by Bucky Neal Oakwood, scoring in every event, our trackmen set the record for the 400 yard Shuttle Relay. This victory helped prepare the team for the Xenia Invitational Meet in which the 'Jacks placed fifth.

Hoping to better last year's record of 8-2, the Oakwood linksmen eagerly awaited the coming of warm weather. With the first match soon after the opening practices, the golfers found it necessary to get into top form quickly. Mr. Gardner, the new golf coach, was quite optimistic as the top four men averaged below 40 in a practice round with barely a week of practice.

Senior letterman, Dave Bryant, was first man with Jack Lau and Bill MacKinnon second and third. The Pavey brothers, Bob and Tom, scrambled for the fourth spot with Jim Shively in close pursuit. In their first match against Kiser the 'Jacks won 16 to 0 behind Dave Bryant's 42.

Last year the 'Jacks lost only to Fairmont, the city champs, and to Colonel White. This year's schedule included ten league matches with the tri-state and district tournaments in May.

Junior High Teams register victories

Displaying top potential, the Freshmen football team posted three wins, one tie, and one loss. Coach Sappington's charges registered victories over Trotwood, Madison, West Milton, and West Carrollton. Their only loss was suffered at the hands of Fairborn 20 to 28, while they tied Northmont with 14 points. John Ryder and Dave Brumbaugh led the scoring with 34 and 28 points respectively. Doug Lane and Dave Brumbaugh were co-captains.

The seventh and eighth gridders enjoyed a victorious season with four wins and one loss. After shutting their first three opponents—Mad River, O.H.S.O., and Miamisburg—the 'Jacks were beaten byNorthmont. In the last game of the season Coach Reickert's charges defeated Fairborn 14-12.

The ninth grade cagers turned in a great season as they compiled 12 victories and 2 defeats. Their wins included victories over Miamisburg, West Carrollton Fairborn, Northridge and Mad River.

The seventh grade basketball team was undefeated in 7 contests while the eighth grade team compiled a 5 and 3 record. The seventh and eighth grade teams under the coaching of Mr. Reickert pooled their talent to win one game against Nicholas School. The seventh graders dumped Northmont, Miamisburg, O.S.S.O., Dixie, Wayne, while the eighth graders were triumphant over Trotwood-Madison, West Carrollton, Northridge.

With warm weather coming late, a large group of athletes readied themselves for spring sports. The junior high track team under the coaching of Mr. Reickert scheduled 6 meets. Miss Strominger became the new coach of the junior high tennis team which gained much valuable experience.

The outlook for this year's team was extremely bright, as Mr. Armbruster has nine returning seniors. With warm weather arriving late the team strove to get into top form. The first team appeared strong as they intended to better last year's 5-9 record.

There was much competition among the eighteen players to secure a starting position. At catcher, senior Bob Judd led the way with Mike Jones in support. The first base duties appeared in capable hands with John Phythyon backed up by Jed Damuth. Jack Martin and Doug Price handled second base chores with Steve Chappell at short stop. Rounding out the infield was Roy Kievit pursued by Don Vandenburg in the third base spot. A strong group of pitchers included Bob Gaines, Mike Herway, Dave White, and Bert Paalmund. Bert was a foreign exchange student from Holland and proved to be a fine pitcher. The outfield positions were split among Rooney Mereness, Steve Johnson, and Howie Fogt, with Tom Thornton and Doug Seibert backing them up.

In their first game, Oakwood blanked Northridge 4-0. Mike Herway hurled the shut out with Steve Johnson's bat creating the margin of victory. Steve hit a grand-slam home run for the four Oakwood tallies.

An undefeated season is the boast of the '59 hockey Jills. The Varsity finished the year with an impressive record of 7 wins and 1 tie. The team, consisting mainly of experienced seniors, had a strong backfield and a fast forward line. The Jills racked up thirty-eight points to their opponents three.

Coached by Miss Strominger and her assistants, Mrs. Buck and Miss Dotson, the Jills put in many hours of practice before games. Rough scrimmages, practice drills, and running six laps a night were prime factors in accomplishing a winning season.

Co-captains were Ginni Miller and Terry Taylor. Kathy Gardner, Mary Moeller, and Liz Johnson were managers. Each girl had a hard job to do, and each proved herself quite capable in performing it.

The Reserve team, affectionately called "My Little Reservies" by Miss Strominger, also made a fine showing. Their ability and spirit proved them excellent prospects for future Varsity teams.

Seniors add zest to '59 hockey team

The cafeteria set the scene for the annual hockey banquet. The meal was furnished by the mothers of the senior girls, and the room was decorated by the sophomore Jills.

Third year letters were awarded to Carol Cunningham, Connie Calvert, Katy Carey, Barb Durbin, Donna Hinton, Carol Kirgis, Ginni Miller, and Terry Taylor. In addition to their letters each senior received a ceramic gift from Miss Strominger.

Miss Strominger made a few appropriate remarks about each Jill as she gave the award. She gave the departing seniors due praise for their contribution to the undefeated season. Ginni Miller and Carol Kirgis were commended for their excellent defense playing, and Terry Taylor for her outstanding offense ability. The other seniors were also congratulated.

Second year letters were received by eleven juniors. Varsity letters were given to Barb Ausbeck, Kitty Evans, E. J. Prugh, and Lila Yates.

At the close of the banquet the girls gave Miss Strominger a silver necklace to show their appreciation for her help in making the 1959 season an undefeated one.

Volleyball team displays enthusiasm

An interscholastic volleyball team was formed for the first time this year. Many girls tried out for the team, but Miss Strominger had to limit it to twenty-four members. As in hockey, the senior Jills made up the majority of the team with sixteen members. There were also three juniors and five sophomores on the team.

The girls practiced strenuously three nights a week. They did drills to improve their serves, spikes, and volleys.

Barb Hassink was chosen captain of the team. Ellen Pinnell and Lynn Nichols were managers.

Miss Strominger stated that she felt the team members were all excellent players, but were inconsistent and lacked experience.

After only one day of practice the Jills met Miamisburg and were victorious, defeating them 35 to 27. The games following the Miamisburg match did not go as well. Though the Jills came close to defeating Fairmont and Northmont, they couldn't pull ahead to win. The record for the year of both the varsity and reserve teams was 1 win and 4 losses.

TEAM SPIRIT RUNS HIGH as Lumberjills fight for more points.

Katy Carey headed the Girls' Athletic Association in its second year of existence. She was aided by Barb Williams, intramural chairman; Jane Theile, secretary-treasurer; Liz Johnson, social chairman; Ginni Miller, senior point secretary; Peg Halsted, junior point secretary; and Mary Jane Moore, sophomore point secretary. The council was composed of these officers and a representative from each homeroom.

A campout at Camp Shawno was the first social project of the GAA. It turned out to be more than just an ordinary campout when Miss Strominger began entertaining the girls by talking like Donald Duck. The girls also had an ice skating party at Icelandia. Even novice skaters such as Barb Williams and Vicki Bumstead enjoyed themselves. In February the GAA went swimming at Roosevelt High School.

Teamwork guides 1960 basketball Jills

Teamwork was one of the chief assets of the 1960 basketball Jills. The varsity squad was made up of eleven members. Since Miss Strominger did not always start the same six players, each game was a test of the girls' ability to play well with several different teammates.

This year's guards did an excellent job of holding the Jills' opponents to a minimum number of points. Both man-to-man and zone defenses were used. Sandy Trout, Mary Moeller, and Lila Yates perfected an effective zone; Gail Birkbeck, Georgia Hassink, and Barb Hassink worked with man-to-man. Most of these girls were high jumpers and excellent rebounders.

Katy Carey, Stephanie Schipper, Barb Williams, "Mac" Fitzpatrick, and Carol Kirgis played forwards for the Jills. All were good players. Barb and Carol were the two high scorers for the team. Barb scored 86 points and Carol, 95 points. In the Indian Hill game the girls outscored one of the best teams in the league.

The girls elected "Mac" Fitzpatrick and Barb Hassink as their co-captains. These girls were very conscientious in their job, and even took time out to make themselves special pillows with their names and "co-captain" written on them in red.

Managers for the team were Nancy Harvey, Chris Harlan, Nancy Brickley, Fran Taylor, and Nancy Maharg. Nancy Harvey was in charge of refreshments, and the other managers helped score and time the games.

The reserve team was made up mainly of sophomores, and although this was the girls' first year of interscholastic play, they did well. After the varsity team suffered a loss to Jefferson, the reserves came back to defeat them 17 to 15. Outstanding forwards were Karen Alexander and "Sam" Houston.

Though the girls' final record was 3 wins and 5 losses, they gained much experience and have hopes for a better season next year.

Junior Jills prove worthy opponents

The Freshman hockey team, composed of 23 girls, practiced diligently 3 nights a week under the guidance of Mrs. Buck. Many a day the Junior Jills would wait patiently for a field on which to practice their skills.

The game against the Reserves was the biggest challenge of the year for the Junior Jills. They practiced constantly in preparation for the important contest. The Freshmen started with great enthusiasm, but the experience of the Reserves proved to be too much of a match for them. The final score was 4-1 in favor of the Reserves.

The Junior Jills also played the senior high All-Star team. The All-Stars won after a hard battle; the score was 4-0.

These girls will be a welcome addition to the Varsity hockey team next year.

Junior high basketball intramurals were started in February under the direction of Patsy Herrman. There were ten teams in the junior high. Five seventh and eighth grade teams played in one league and four ninth grade teams in another. Lois Kievit's freshmen team played with the senior high teams and did quite well against more experienced players.

The girls learned better sportsmanship and obtained a knowledge of the game. There was a friendly atmosphere during the games and many humorous remarks were made to the teams' favorite referee, Barb Williams.

Peg Demarse's team, winner of the ninth grade league, played Lois Kievit's team for the championship of the ninth graders. Lois's team won by a score of 15 to 6. The ninth grade champions then played Sarah Kirgis's team, the winner of the seventh and eighth grade league. Lois's team again won and were proclaimed champions of the 1960 junior high basketball intramural season.

The two tennis teams were organized in April under the guidance of Miss Strominger. On the senior high team were four returning lettermen—Donna Hinton, Judy Euchenhofer, Sharon French, and Terry Taylor. The newcomers to the squad were Paula Stone, Karen Alexander, Sarah Houston, and Georgia Hassink who played on last year's junior high team.

With a challenging schedule the team played Middletown three times and also Hamilton, Wyoming, and Fairmont.

The junior high team had four returning players —Terry Heitz, Margot Herbruck, Lois Kievit, and Cathy Calvert—which made their season look promising. Chris Holmes and Pam Gregg added spark to the team.

make no small plans for your future

Today's exciting era of rapid discovery and almost unbelievable technological progress opens up scores of richly rewarding opportunities for the youth of America.

Thousands upon thousands of well-educated young people are needed to fill the exacting demands of engineering, the arts, social sciences, medicine, finance, aviation, electronics, and business.

Your diploma signifies you have successfully completed that first long step toward greater responsibilities as you enter the career of your choice.

This is an ideal moment for you to chart your future. Make your plans BIG ONES! Think highly of your abilities and possibilities.

Whatever degree of success you may achieve, let it be your personal goal at all times to add new honor to Oakwood High School.
